EVENING HIGH SCHOOL

The evening school joins with the high school in welcoming the people of Torrance to the football game on Friday. The school hopes everyone will come to see the team play the best game of the season.

While you are thinking of the game the principal, Guy L. Mowry, would like to remind you of the opportunities offered at the evening school. There are classes in English and mathematics, all the commercial subjects, arts and crafts, sewing, Spanish, Diesel engine, beauty culture, band and commercial law.

The American Legion drum and bugle class has been discontinued for the present. Those who are interested are invited to substitute the band for this class. Band meets every Thursday evening from 7 to 9 in the gym. A new group is enrolled which is planning to entertain the public in the near future.

The class in beauty culture is enjoying the use of its new equipment very much. The class learned from actual observation how to put in a finger wave in the most modern and up-to-date fashion. The gardening class has become one of the most enthusiastic groups. If the attendance and interest keep growing they may meet twice a week. If you are at all interested you could do nothing finer than to join the class.

Hints For Motorists

(The Herald today presents another group of an instructive series of questions and answers related to various phases of motor vehicle ownership and operation in California. Authority for the answers is Ivan Kelo; general counsel, Automobile Club of Southern California.)

Question—How is it possible to prepare a minor for an operator's license examination since it is unlawful for him to operate a car until a license has been secured?

Answer—The department of motor vehicles has established a procedure to cover this situation. When application is made for a minor's operator's license an instruction permit must be secured, and during the period for which it is issued a minor may operate or learn to operate motor vehicles when accompanied by a licensed operator. At the conclusion of the instruction period a regular examination is given and if satisfactory a permanent license is then issued.

Question—Must a bicycle rider observe the same traffic rules which a motorist is required to obey?

Answer—Yes. The term vehicle as defined in the California Vehicle Act specifically includes bicycles. The defining regulations in the act are directed as applying to all vehicles and must, therefore, be observed by bicycles.

Question—What is there to prevent a person whose operator's license has been revoked, or suspended for applying for another or using a fictitious name and address?

Answer—By virtue of the seventh subdivision of Section 51 of the Vehicle Act it is unlawful to use a false or fictitious name in an application for the registration of a vehicle or for an operator's or chauffeur's license, or to make any false statement or conceal a material fact in such application. A violation is made a criminal offense and is punishable by $500 fine or six months imprisonment or both.

at Narbonne High School

Narbonne students have had the privilege of hearing two well-known speakers at recent assemblies. Lt. C. E. Jones (retired) of the U. S. navy, was the guest speaker at an assembly, October 25, in observance of Navy Day, while Coach Bill Spaulding of U. C. L. A. addressed the Gauchos Tuesday, October 30, at a student body assembly.

Lt. Jones gave a review of the navy from the days when ships were rowed by slaves up to the present-day electrically driven ships. He also spoke of the important role that will be played in future wars by the naval air force, which he declared was the offensive arm of the navy.

Mark Goodnow of the journalism department of U. S. C. spoke to the journalism class, October 22, on the subject of "The Future of Journalism." Another noted speaker will be Major School of the Northwest Mounted Police, who will lecture at a combined A. S. B. program on December 3.

The coming junior play at Narbonne has been revealed as "Paddy, the Next Best Thing." It is a three-act comedy written by W. G. Mackay and Robert Ord. Mrs. Brinkerhoff has not chosen the cast yet, but tryouts are in progress. The stage crew under Mr. Willebrandt are working on plans for the sets. The date of presentation of this popular comedy has been set for Friday evening, January 11.
